

Post-Tenure Review Schedule and Calendar

Office of the Provost
University of South Carolina

Each tenured faculty member, regardless of rank and including those in departmental administrative positions, will be reviewed every six years unless, during the previous six-year period, the faculty member is reviewed and advanced to or retained in a higher position (such as dean, an endowed chair or named professorship, promotion to a higher professorial rank). Sabbatical leave does not affect post-tenure review. The schedule below indicates the ordinary post-tenure review cycle, as well as extended review cycles for up to the maximum three allowed extensions. Post-tenure review will be waived, however, for any faculty member who notifies the unit chair in writing of retirement within three years of the next scheduled review.

This document is a guide only. The Faculty Manual is the final authority on post-tenure review policies and procedures; see also policy ACAF 1.31: Extension of Faculty Tenure-Track Probationary Period and Scheduled Post-Tenure Review. Please contact the relevant department chair or dean for department- or college-specific post-tenure review guidelines.

Automatic COVID-19 Post-Tenure Review Extensions

In 2020 in response to the pandemic, the provost announced automatic post-tenure review extensions for a full six-year cycle. That is, any faculty member scheduled for a post-tenure review for academic years 2020-2021 through 2025-2026 receives an automatic post-tenure review extension. This extension will count as one of the maximum three allowed extensions as stated in the Faculty Manual. Any faculty member may choose to proceed with post-tenure review without the one-year extension if desired.

Post-Tenure Review Calendar

The Faculty Manual is the final authority on post-tenure review policies and procedures. Faculty undergoing post-tenure review and those involved in faculty evaluation should familiarize themselves with the procedures described therein. This calendar is a guide only.

BOLD DATES are firm deadlines set by the Office of the Provost. Other dates are suggestions and may be modified to fit the needs of the unit. Units have the option to set alternative deadlines and create their own internal schedule as long as they can meet the April 10 deadline for completion of reviews.

 In all tenure and promotion procedures, when a deadline for taking some action falls on a weekend or university holiday, the deadline shall be the next business day.*

Deadline	Action
Spring
May 1	Dean's office notifies all eligible faculty in writing that post-tenure review will occur during the following academic year.
June 1	Eligible faculty notify the dean's office in writing of their intent to go forward with post-tenure review or to retire in three years. Faculty contact the appropriate post-tenure review (PTR) committee chair for guidance in preparing file.
July 15	Deans submit online to the Office of the Provost the names of all faculty members who will undergo post-tenure review in the upcoming academic year.
Fall
November 1	Faculty completes the post-tenure review file and forwards the file to the chair's or dean's office for PTR committee review.
Spring
January 25	The PTR committee's report is forwarded to the faculty member, department chair, and dean. The PTR committee must include recommendations in its report that will assist in restoring the faculty member's performance to a "satisfactory" level in any area found unsatisfactory.
February 20	In the event that the faculty member's overall performance evaluation is determined by the PTR committee to be "unsatisfactory," a development committee (which may be the PTR committee or a separate committee depending on the unit criteria) will prepare a development plan and a timetable for improvement following unit criteria. The development plan must be prepared in consultation with and receive the concurrence of the faculty member.
April 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed development plan for those judged unsatisfactory and timetable must be approved by the committee and forwarded to the chair and to the dean. Copies of the development plan and the relevant PTR committee's report must also be sent to the provost.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disagreements between the faculty member and the development committee or between the development committee and the PTR committee concerning the development plan or timetable will be resolved by the dean. • A post-tenure review summary including the names of all faculty reviewed and their overall performance rating (superior, satisfactory, or unsatisfactory) shall be forwarded to the provost.
